Tabled until February 3, 2020 meeting.

Martial Arts Competition 2020 Update –

Center of Defense Arts has found a different venue to host their event. Request no longer necessary.

Pool Contract Update –

Board of Aldermen approved the Mayor to execute an amended agreement with Midwest Pools Management for an additional one-year term and up to four years of additional renewal terms. Amendments included requirement to have the outdoor pool completely ready one week prior to opening day and adding the cost of Co2 services.

Trane Update –

Lydon indicated that RiverChase will be closed February 17 – February 21 to the public to allow for various energy updates.

2020 Budget Approval –

Lydon indicated that the 2020 budget was approved by the Board of Aldermen.

Miscellaneous Director Updates –

- Millie completed 54 personal training appointments in November and 55 in December.
- Our Indoor Youth Soccer league will have enough participants to be played this year.
- We are hosting a snowball tournament the weekend of January 25th and January 26th at Fenton City Park.
- Bids to re-strap chairs at the pools.

II. PARK REPORTS:

Board members present park reports -

Bud Weil – Weldele/Preslar – Park looks good, water looks good, inquired about having history of park posted. Sidewalk is still closed which leaves no easy access to the back pavilion.

Meramec Greenway – Eason –

Riverside Park – Froidl/Nottlemann – 2 benches need paint and 1 has wood rotting on seat and needs replaced. Basketball court needs resealing/resurfacing. Debris in northwest corner.

RiverChase – Nottelmann/Froidl – Men’s locker room has a broken shower head; basketball nets not operating correctly.

Westside – Turallo/Mehrhoff -

Fabick – Mehrhoff/Eason

Fenton City Park – Gordon/Eason/Froidl –

Heroes Memorial – Preslar -

Olde Towne Plaza Park & Valiant – Gordon/Turallo
